

Danny Ryan

Vice President

Chief Strategy Officer, Pi Kappa Alpha International Fraternity

Danny currently serves as the chief strategy officer for the Pi Kappa Alpha International Fraternity where he oversees the strategic planning process and execution of the 5-year strategic plan for the fraternity. Danny also oversees the membership development program and systems that educate over 15,000 fraternity members at more than 220 campuses throughout North America through event-based, online and peer-to-peer education.

Danny has over 10 years of experience working professionally and voluntarily in learning and development, association management and higher education.

Danny earned his bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from Missouri S&T in 2012, his master of science degree in information systems from the University of Memphis in 2020, and is currently pursuing his Doctor of Education (EdD) in leadership and learning in organizations from Vanderbilt University.

Danny is a member of the Fraternity Executives Association, the Memphis Chapter of the Association for Talent Development, and the American Society of Association Executives where Danny is a Certified Association Executive candidate.

Danny and his wife, Shahd, Bus'12, support St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, the Memphis Zoo, the Orpheum Theatre in Memphis, and all Memphis and St. Louis professional sports teams. Danny and Shahd live in Memphis, Tennessee with their two miniature dachshunds (Tommy) Petty and Frampton.
