

Paul Hirtz

Area 4 Director

Administrative Operations Manager and Student Conduct Officer,

Missouri S&T

---

Paul Hirtz is employed at Missouri S&T as part of the Office of the Dean of Students. In his role, he serves as Missouri S&T's senior conduct officer. He is also given the privilege to work the Office of Student Involvement, specifically S&T's Greek organizations where he enjoys the opportunity to work with leaders throughout the Greek community.

Prior to joining the Office of the Dean of Students, Paul served the campus in a variety of roles during his more than two decades with Missouri S&T. He spent time as a technology liaison supporting information systems and technology improvements for the Division of Student Affairs, assistant director for Residential Life, associate director for the Student Design and Experiential Learning Center, and an adjunct professor in Engineering Management. Before joining Missouri S&T, he was with Dierberg's Markets for just over a decade and owned a lawn and landscaping company in the St. Louis area.

Paul earned a bachelor's degree in engineering management from Missouri S&T in 1995. He continued his education at Missouri S&T earning his master's degree and PhD in engineering management in 1997 and 2002 respectfully.

Paul gives of his time to many different organizations in addition to the Miner Alumni Association. He serves as the chapter advisor for S&T's Delta Sigma Phi fraternity, a Scouts BSA leader, an officer with the local Knights of Columbus, and volunteers with his local Catholic church and several youth sports programs. Paul also was a founding member of the Innovators Educational Foundation, the organization that hosts collegiate solar car challenges in North America including the American Solar Challenge where he has served as volunteer for more than two decades.

Paul is married to Julie (Stevens) Hirtz, ME'99, EMgt'99, MS ME'00. They live in Rolla with their four children; Landon, Kathryn, Connor and Mason. Paul and Julie are members of the Order of the Golden Shillelagh, where Paul served six years with the Board of Directors previously.